

Facilitator Certification

Run Caiwood X games with your own clients, licensed and certified.

For consultants, trainers and internal learning teams who want to deliver our business simulations commercially. Certification covers how to run and debrief each game, a practice session observed by a partner, and the license to deliver the games to paying clients, renewed each year with updates.

WHAT CERTIFICATION COVERS

The games

Quadrant, Flow, Moments of Truth, Pain Point Poker and the FACTOR Sprint Kit.

Facilitation

Setup, pacing and managing the room.

The debrief

Turning play into actions people own.

Practice session

You run a game; a partner observes and gives feedback.

Commercial license

Deliver to paying clients, with attribution.

Updates

New editions and scenarios as they are released.

WHAT YOU GET

- Facilitator guides and debrief scripts for each game
- Game files licensed for commercial delivery
- Two live training sessions with a Caiwood X partner
- Observed practice session with written feedback
- Certificate and use of the Certified Facilitator mark

HOW IT RUNS

Week 1	Two live virtual sessions, three hours each
Weeks 2-3	Preparation and self-study
Week 4	Observed practice session
Each year	Renewal with updates

INVESTMENT

$2,750

One-time certification, per facilitator. Renewal is $495 a year and keeps your commercial delivery rights and updates current. Printed kits are sold separately.

BUILT FOR

Independent consultants, corporate trainers, coaches, and internal learning or continuous-improvement teams.

WHAT IT IS NOT

- Not a license to resell or modify the games
- Not needed for internal use: organizations can buy a game license
- Not a general facilitation course
