

Game Licenses for Organizations

Run our business games inside your company, as often as you like.

An annual license lets your own trainers and leaders run the Quadrant Game, the Flow Game, Moments of Truth, Pain Point Poker and the FACTOR Sprint Kit with your people. Pick the size that fits: one team, one site, or the whole company.

WHAT EVERY LICENSE INCLUDES

All five games

Quadrant, Flow, Moments of Truth, Pain Point Poker, FACTOR Sprint Kit.

Unlimited sessions

Within the licensed team, site or company.

Print-ready files

Letter and A4, printable in-house or by any print shop.

Updates

New editions and scenarios during the license year.

Facilitator guides

Setup, timing and debrief scripts for each game.

Support

Email support from the people who designed the games.

LICENSE SIZES

- Team: one team or department, up to 25 people
- Site: one location, unlimited internal sessions, plus a 90-minute onboarding for your trainers
- Enterprise: all locations, train-the-trainer for up to five facilitators, and a custom scenario pack
- Printed kits available at extra cost
- Renews annually; cancel before the renewal date

HOW IT RUNS

Day 1	License confirmed and files delivered
Week 1	Trainer onboarding (Site and Enterprise)
Ongoing	Run sessions as often as you like
Each year	Renewal with updates

$1,950/yr

Team $1,950 a year. Site $4,950 a year. Enterprise from $12,000 a year. Internal use only; to deliver the games to outside clients, see Facilitator Certification.

BUILT FOR

HR, learning and development, continuous-improvement and operations teams that want to build shared language and habits with games their own people can run.

WHAT IT IS NOT

- Not for delivering sessions to outside clients
- Not a license to resell or modify the games
- Not a substitute for a facilitated offsite, which we also run
